J. M. HURD, Postmaster.

Proclamation to the People of Wisconsin.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to take from the people of this state its chief magistrate, the Hon. Lotis P. Harvey, who on the 19th of this month, lost his life in the waters of the Tennessee river, while executing a noble and self-sacrificing mission of philanthropy, in trying to rescue from the recent battle field in Tennessee the dead, and to alleviate the suffering of the wounded soldiers of this state; therefore, I, EDWARD SALMON, Governor of the state of Wisconsin, on assuming the duties devolved upon me by that sad event, do hereby, in behalf of this state, tender to the bereaved widow of its late beloved chief magistrate, the deep and sorrowful sympathy and condolence of its people, and I do hereby recommend that for thirty days from this date all public office hours, courts, and other public buildings, be closed in mourning; and that during that time the people of this state wear the usual badges of mourning; and I do further appoint Thursday, the first day of May, A. D. 1862, as a day of public rest and cessation of business, and recommend to the people of this state that on that day, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock in the morning, they assemble in their respective towns, cities and villages, then and there to commemorate the death of the late governor, the Hon. Lotis P. Harvey, by such public demonstrations, as may be appropriate to the occasion.

EDWARD SALMON, Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, April 22d, 1862.

No Paper To-morrow.

In compliance with the recommendation to abstain from ordinary business to-morrow, no paper will be issued from this office. If any important news is received by telegraph, it will be issued in an extra.

Church Bells.

The church bells of this city will toll to-morrow from 10 o'clock until halfpast 10, the time for the assembling of the citizens at Lippin's Hall.

Hospital Supplies.

The near approach of a battle at Corinth should warn us to be ready with articles necessary for the wounded. Those who desire to contribute can leave packages at this office, which will be forwarded as directed.

Deaths of Wisconsin Soldiers.

From the weekly report of the mortality among the soldiers in the military hospitals and camps in the vicinity of St. Louis, Mo., we take the following names from Wisconsin regiments.

Friends of the soldiers can obtain any information in reference to their burial place or for their removal, by addressing Mr. Smithers, 113 Chesnut street, St. Louis, Mo.

Good BUTTER.

We were presented, today, with a specimen of butter, made by Mrs. Ira Dexter, of Johnsonville, which has been packed a year. It is as fresh and good now as any newly made butter, and cannot be distinguished from it by the most practiced dealer. Those who want a fine article of table butter, will buy of Mrs. Dexter.

CAIRO, April 28.

The "B" brought to Cairo six refugees from Memphis, from which city they had departed only yesterday. They had secured, through the convenience of a Union merchant, their passports to Hannibal, but instead of going in that direction they procured a skiff and crossed the Mississippi to the Arkansas shore, about six miles below Randolph, and taking to the swamp and bottom lands, which are here overgrown by an immense distance. They towed back six miles or more from the river and after severe trials and suffering reached Osceola.

From here they rowed to the fleet and reported to Union soldiers. They say a majority of the people in Memphis are Unionists, but are compelled to advocate secession sentiments to preserve their property. There are several secret Union societies, who assist their members to emigrate, and are pledged to aid in the re-establishment of federal authority. Five men are known to be on their way north by the same route taken by these.

Gens. Price and Van Dorn recently passed through Memphis on their way to Corinth, leaving about 5,000 troops to overawe the city and enforce the secession act. Jeff Thompson is in Memphis and has his quarters at the Gayoso House. There are five thousand bales of cotton, seven thousand bushels of sugar and twenty thousand barrels of molasses now lying upon the levee at Memphis, of which the cotton will be burnt, and the sugar and molasses rolled into the river, on the approach of the federal forces. Citizens and newspapers are opposed to burning the city, but the soldiers and country people favor it.

The Memphis Argus is considered the exponent of the Union sentiment, and is not allowed telegraphic despatches. The safety committee talk of suppressing it. The legislature passed the militia law without a quorum. The more violent of the rebels in the country consider Memphis a "Union hole," and threaten to wipe it out.

On Wednesday succeeding the battle of Pittsburg, Gen. Prentiss and twenty-three hundred and eighty-six Union prisoners passed through Memphis. The men were in good spirits, and kindly treated by the inhabitants, particularly the Irish and German women. Citizens contented themselves with waving handkerchiefs and looking the interest they dare not openly express. A gentleman made a Union speech to his men, and the citizens cheered him. General Marshall L. D. McKissick made him remain silent. Prentiss told him he had four to one more friends in Memphis than he (McKissick), and said to the citizens, "Keep quiet for a few weeks, and you will have an opportunity to cheer the old flag to your hearts' content." Our soldiers sang the Star Spangled Banner, Red, White and Blue, Happy Land of Canaan, and Old John Brown, as they were starting on the cars for Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where they are at present confined. There were one hundred and fourteen Union officers among the prisoners. Beauregard claims to have taken three thousand prisoners.

The London papers announce the death of Admiral Sir James Clark Ross, the celebrated Arctic voyager, aged 62.

An Experiment with Sugar Cane.

Messrs. Editors:—We have had a very cold, wet, dreary season to get in our cereal crops; dragging through rain and mud, working but a half a day at a time, but have at last accomplished our undertaking. And as the next thing is corn planting, let me here advise my brother farmers: Do not forget to plant at least half an acre to sugar cane. You may be skeptical in regard to the utility of this plant, and considering the profit and loss may strike the balance greatly in favor of the latter. If so, you will do exactly as I have done, till the year past, when I resolved to try the experiment. I planted three-eighths of an acre, part Imphee and Sorghum. It grew finely, and ripened well. I made a mill of three wooden rollers eighteen inches in diameter to press my cane, and had a pan made of galvanized iron sufficiently large to hold seven pails full, built an arch, bought a new dust pan and punched it full of holes, lengthened out the handle for a skimmer, and after straining my sap, to boiling and skimming I went. The result was a fine quantity and quality of sirup, and twenty gallons of vinegar. Therefore, so far as sweet and sour is concerned, I am independent and not obliged to cart my jugs to town to be filled and draw my water at the same time for Mr. A. or B. to enrich a wicked secessionist from the profits of my industry in the end.

I have given you a brief, running account of my experimenting on a small scale, not knowing how much money there might or might not be in it; but I regard it a success, and believe the time will come, even in our latitude, and further north, when mills, apparatus and buildings will be conveniently located, so that we shall make both sugar and sirup, and thereby thousands of dollars be saved to our young and enterprising state.

Respectfully yours, J. A. TURNER.

Chicago Market.

There was a fair shipping demand for wheat today, and the market ruled steady and firm for No. 1, but closed quiet and easy for No. 2. Sales ranging from 60,000 to 1,000,000 No. 1, and 750,000 No. 2, spring. Flour was in good demand, but the scarcity of freight from western transactions. About 3,000 bushels changed hands at 45¢; 45¢ for winter wheat, 20¢; 10¢ for foreign choice spring extra, and 25¢; 30¢ for superfine. Oats were steady and the market ruled firm at 27½¢; 27½¢ for old mixed in store, 24½¢ for old mixed river about, 20¢ for old mixed canal, and 24½¢ for new rejected canal about. Oats were in good demand (principally for shipment to St. Louis to fill government contracts), and the market was firm, with sales of No. 1 in store and on board at 22¢ and 24¢. Rye was in active request and prices improved 1½¢; sales being made at 44½¢; 44½¢, principally at the latter figure. Barley firm and steady. Rye and heavy. Highwines quiet and easy. Luke freight was more active at the decline. Seven vessels were chartered at 6½¢ for corn and 7¢ for wheat to Buffalo.

Meat prices in active demand, and advanced 12½¢; 20¢ per barrel, with sales of country packed at 87½¢; 100¢, and city packed at 10 to 10½¢; 37½¢. Bulk meats were quiet with small sales of country cut shoulders and lumps at 10¢; 10¢; 10¢. Lard firm and steady. Turf in good request.

Business in financial circles is gradually improving. Currency is abundant and in better demand by grain dealers and speculators in government stocks. Little exchange on New York is quiet and easy at par buying, and 1½¢; 1½¢ per cent premium selling. Gold remains dull and nominal at 124½¢; 124½¢; 124½¢ per cent selling—no profit.

Headache.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nervous Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They sold full in removing Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—relieving the

For Literary Men, Students, delicate females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer the drugs.

Beware of Counterfeits:

The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding on each box.

Sold by Druggists and all other dealers in Medicine.

A box will be sent by mail prepaid on receipt of the
